

The Episcopal Church in Hawai‘i is a
“GUN FREE ZONE.”

At the direction of the Bishop, Diocesan Council, and the Standing Committee, and in keeping with the actions of The Episcopal Church’s General Convention, carrying firearms is prohibited in the buildings and on the property of the Episcopal Church in Hawai‘i except by duly authorized civil authorities, authorized security, or other church authorized personnel.