MINUTES OF THE SIXTY-FIRST ANNUAL CONVOCATION
OF THE MISSIONARY DIOCESE OF HONOLULU

Monday, February 11, 1963

At 8:00 A M the Service of Holy Communion was held in St Andrew's Cathedral, preceding the business meeting of the 61st Annual Convocation. The Iolani School Choir sang for this service.

Breakfast was served in St Peter's Parish Hall.

The Bishop presided as President, and the meeting was called to order at 9:35 AM, in Tenney Hall. Following the Invocation, The Rev Canon Wai On Shim was requested to read the roll call of clergy canonically resident in the district. The Roll of Lay Delegates was called by The Reverend Robert Sheeran. A quorum was declared present by the President.

Motion was made by The Rev Norman C Ault that The Rev Canon Wai On Shim be nominated as Secretary, and The Rev Robert Sheeran be nominated as Assistant Secretary of the 61st Convocation. And, if there be no further nominations, that a white ballot be cast in their favor. Motion was seconded, and the nominations ratified by Convocation.

The Bishop introduced The Reverend William Grosvenor Pollard and Mrs Pollard to members of Convocation.

It was moved by The Rev Robert Sheeran that courtesy of the floor be extended to The Rev Dr and Mrs Pollard, Chaplain John C Francis, and The Rev George T Eppley. Motion was seconded and approved.

Motion was made by The Rev Mr Sheeran that messages be sent to:

The Rt Rev and Mrs Charles P Gilson, Suffragan Bishop of Honolulu
The Rt Rev and Mrs S Harrington Littell, Retired Bishop of Honolulu Chaplain George H Quarterman, Jr, and that messages be limited to this number. Motion was seconded and passed.

Motion was made by The Rev Mr Sheeran that Annual Convocation Reports be limited to:

The Treasurer's Report by Mr Henry Budd
The Board of Directors by Mr Herman von Holt
Short reports of the schools, Iolani, St Andrew's Priory, Hawaii Preparatory Academy, and that these be given at the end of Convocation Business, time permitting
Report from a Special Committee on Bishop and Council by The Rev W Edwin Bonsey, Jr, and Report on Stewardship by The Rev Paul M Wheeler

The Rev Mr Sheeran moved that the date of the 1964 Convocation be set at February 2, 1964. Motion was seconded by The Rev Mr Bonsey, and approved.

Roll call by Islands was called by The Rev Robert Sheeran. Delegates were asked to stand as their particular island was named:

Hawaii	Molokai
Kauai	Oahu
Maui	Guam

The Rev E Lani Hanchett asked that the chair and delegates recognize visitors from Taiwan. The President introduced Mr S T Lee, an outstanding lay leader and one largely responsible for the establishment of the Church on Taiwan, and his wife, Mrs Mary Lee.

Clergymen who had arrived since last Convocation were introduced:

The Rev Kenneth D Perkins, who at one time was on the staff of the Cathedral, and later at Holy Apostles, and a World War II Chaplain serving with the Navy until this year was introduced. The Rev Mr Perkins is now Vicar at St George's Church.

The Rev John H Chung, Vicar at St Columba's, Paauilo and St James', Paapaaloa, and his wife, Mrs Violet Chung;

The Rev Albert Collins, Vicar at St Augustine's, Kohala, and St Paul's, Makapala, and wife, Verity;

The Rev Byron Jean Clark, a musician of note, and Mrs Frances Murtle Clark, now Rector of Holy Nativity;

The Rev Delbert S Westling, Associate Rector at St Christopher's Church, and his wife, Hatherly ("Happy"). The Rev Mr Westling was with Navy Intelligence previous to entering seminary, and was a member of Calvary Church. He finished Seminary in Austin, Texas;

The Rev George T Eppley, Locum Tenens, Calvary Church, is filling in for The Rev William Grosh. It is hoped The Rev Mr Eppley will stay on and become a part of the Diocesan family.

The Rev Thomas K Yoshida, vicar at Christ Memorial, Kilauea, and St Thomas Chapel, Hanalei, living at Kapaa, Kauai.

Each year at the Convocation Banquet, Distinguished Service Crosses are presented to a certain few people. A number of the following named persons have already received these crosses, and at this time Diocesan Seals were presented at the meeting.

The Rev Canon Wai On Shim, Rector of St Elizabeth's Church, Secretary of Convocation for many, many years, and who is retiring;

Deaconess Swinburne, Church worker since 1925, and who is retiring;

Mrs C Montague Cooke, Jr, who has attended practically every Convocation for 61 years;

Mrs Raymond K Hoefener, who has graciously given her services in the Diocesan office for many years, in preparation for Convocation.

At this time the President Called for Petitions and Resolutions, the first from The Rev Richard A Kirchhoffer, concerning a new mission, as follows:

Bishop of Honolulu
The Protestant Episcopal Church
in The Hawaiian Islands

"Whereas, a group of confirmed members of the Episcopal Church residing in the Waipahu area were spiritually inspired and led by The Reverend Richard Kirchhoffer and The Reverend Covy E Blackmon to begin a mission in Waipahu,

"And whereas, they have started regular Sunday services at a classroom in August Ahrens Public School, under the guidance of The Reverend Richard Kirchhoffer,

"And whereas, the members have pledged their time, talent and treasure for the support of this mission,

"And whereas, they have selected and had approved a Bishop's Committee which has regularly canvassed the area for new members and actively carried out its other duties as a mission in Waipahu,

"And whereas, the entire congregation is very desirous of being accepted as a mission in the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Hawaiian Islands,

"Now therefore come they to respectfully petition you to accept the Church of the Holy Spirit in Waipahu as a mission of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Hawaiian Islands.

Said petition was approved by enthusiastic applause, and delegates and members of the mission were asked to stand and be recognized.

The Vice Chancellor, Mr Hugh Shearer quoted from a letter received from The Most Reverend Isabello de los Reyes concerning communicants of the Philippine Independent Church here in the Hawaiian Islands, and who are presently under the jurisdiction and administration of the Protestant Episcopal Church. Under the terms of the concordat it is proposed by the concordat and approved by the committee on constitutions and canons that this petition be approved.

The Rev Timoteo Quintero presented the following petition:

"Members of the Sixty-first Convocation of the Missionary District of Honolulu:

"In accordance with the attached letter from The Most Reverend Isabello de los Reyes, Obispo Maximo of the Iglesia Catolica Filipina Independiente, the communicants of the Philippine Independent Church, now holding services in Parke Memorial Chapel of St Andrew's Cathedral, wish to be recognized as an organized mission with the name of St Paul, said mission of the Philippine Independent Church to be accepted as an organized congregation in the Missionary District of Honolulu.

"This has the approval of the Supreme Bishop of the Philippine Independent Church, who has expressed the thanks of the Church, Bishops and people of said Church for the interest of the Episcopal Church in Hawaii in the spiritual welfare of his people.

"We respectfully beg that our petition receive favorable recognition for this congregation.

The Rev Mr Quintero was requested to introduce delegates and representatives of the newly admitted mission. The following came forward to the Bishop:

Mr Pascual Carino	The Rev Jacinto Tabili
Mr Gregorio Guerrero & Mrs Guerrero	Mrs Crispina Yagin
Mrs Margaretta Sotero	Mrs Eugenio Abraham
Mrs Avelina Cureng	Mrs Teodora Soliva
	Mrs Rosalina Tabora

The Ven Gerald P Loweth, Holy Apostles, was asked whether or not that congregation had any announcements or petitions. None were forthcoming. Holy Apostles just finished building a Church and Parish Hall, and the mission is trying desperately to become self supporting. Delegates and guests from Holy Apostles were asked to stand. Spokesman for the group stated that although self support was not far away, this was not due entirely to Texaco, but through gifts from Mrs Laura Kennedy, one for $60,000 toward the church building and another $20,000 for a new organ, and big steps forward are being taken at this time.

The President made the following nominations, subject to approval of Convocation:

As an explanatory note the President stated that the President of the Episcopal Churchwomen would be elected at a meeting to be held the following day. Mr Elmer Hutchison, who served as Diocesan Keyman this past year moved to Kona, and it is hoped he (Mr Hutchison) will serve this department as resident of the Island of Hawaii. The Rev Wm R Grosh will be away from the Islands until June, and The Rev Mr Pummill will fill in until The Rev Mr Grosh returns. All Department heads were asked to stand, and the applause received indicated clearly the approval of their respective appointments.

The President called upon the Chairman of Christian Social Relations, and now General Chairman on Total Ministry to define the Table of Organization of the reorganized Bishop and Council. The Rev Mr Bonsey first defined Total Ministry. Such ministry is not limited just to clergy, but to each of us at the beginning of our lives - at baptism.

After careful evaluation of the existing departments it has become evident that re-structuring has become necessary. As in previous years, the Archdeacons are assigned to the Department of Missions and Church Extension. The Department of Stewardship is no longer a sub-department of Promotion, and is now a separate department. Laymen and Youth were grouped under "Forward in Service", and are now departmentalized. The Episcopal Churchwomen, formerly, and for lack of a better identification in the Church, now make up a definite department under the direction of Mrs Thomas Brodhead.

The chairmen of these several departments will meet from time to time for purposes of group planning.

The Vice Chancellor, Mr Hugh Shearer, presented the following resolution amending canons of the Missionary District of Honolulu:

"BE IT RESOLVED by the Convocation of the Missionary District of Honolulu that the Canons of the Missionary District of Honolulu be amended in the following respects:

respectively."

The resolution was seconded by Mr Arthur G Smith, and approved. Mr Smith added that the changes were "easy" and very proper, and that any change of magnitude must be referred to the Presiding Bishop.

The Rev E Lani Hanchett, Chairman of the Nominating Committee, presented following nominations for members of the Board of Directors:

Mr Carter Galt
Mr Herman V von Holt
Mr Arthur G Smith
The Rev E Lani Hanchett
Mr Carl Vorce
Mr James Kau
The Rev Dr Paul M Wheeler

The Chair asked if there were nominations from the floor; none being offered, nominations were declared closed, and the names ratified.

Next item of business concerned delegates to the Synod of the Province to be held in Salt Lake City, Utah, May 6 - 9, 1963. The Committee recommended that the Bishop be given authority to appoint said delegates. Motion was seconded by The Rev Robert Sheeran, and approved.

The Rev Mr Hanchett moved that choice of delegates to the Anglican Congress to be held in Toronto, Canada, August 13 - 23, 1963 be as follows: Clerical Delegate - The Rev Joseph Pummill; Lay Delegate - to be appointed by the Bishop. Motion was seconded and approved.

The Treasurer, Mr Henry Budd prefaced his report by giving thanks to Mr von Holt and Mr Arthur Smith for their great help to the Church.

Mr Budd moved that the proposed budget be accepted (which included pledge of $11,000 to the General Church), motion was seconded by The Rev Dr Wheeler, and passed.

Mr von Holt was asked to stand to receive thanks for handling the Church's investments. A round of applause followed.

Mr von Holt, Secretary of the Board of Directors, made his report.

In closing, Mr von Holt remarked that the three meetings were well attended, members attended to business, and still had a jolly time. In connection with the Board of Directors, he wished to pay tribute to the Bishop and Mr Budd, and express his appreciation to them in their handling of Church business.

The next item of business concerned Stewardship. The Rev Dr Wheeler stated that his report had been included in other Convocation Reports previously distributed. He stressed that the Every Member Canvass is only a part of Stewardship, that basically Stewardship is Evangelism, and the task of his committee (department) is to educate laity and to help clergy conduct programs in parishes and missions. As outlined in his report, it is planned to have three visitations this coming year - one during Lent, Stewardship of Time; one during September, Stewardship of Talent, and one in November, Stewardship of Treasure.

The Department of Stewardship is putting on a training period, and each parish and mission is asked to have 2 representatives present. This will start on February 25. It is up to each individual church to set up its own training day. The training department will be happy to lend a hand in this training both on Oahu and on other islands for this on-going work, and all were invited to call upon the Chairman for assistance.

At this time, The Rev Dr Pollard was called to the speaker's table. Dr Pollard brought greetings, affectionate greetings in Christ, from the Bishop, the Bishop Coadjutor, all the clergy, and from many people of the State of Tennessee.

The President asked the various heads of the Church Schools to come forward, leading off with The Rev Burton MacLean, Headmaster, Iolani School. Iolani is about six months younger than the Church in the Hawaiian Islands, and is just beginning its Centennial Year. Iolani will be host to three distinguished educators during the next three months. Academic preparation for college and life, a student body made up of multi-racial and different social backgrounds are traditional aims of the school. Last year Iolani spent $53,000 on scholarships, and as is true of other schools, is faced with raising endowment funds. It is necessary to plan funding for a new complex to contain a new library, humanities and science center. These are present cares and concern of the school which could not go forward without the support of the Board of Governors, faculty, parents and friends in the community. The Rev Mr MacLean concluded his remarks with "It is indeed a great pleasure to me and to all of us to watch boys grow into splendid manhood."

The next school report was given by Sister Evelyn, beginning with "Women after 5 years old never boast of their age". She continued with "Annual reports remind me of package soups; everything is there, but the juice is squeezed out."

There has been a slight decline in total enrollment in the school - this was true because of the "difficulty in making structures fit the facilities". Needs: Office space, counselling room, class rooms. These can be added without additional land area - just additional money.

Mr James Taylor, Headmaster of the Hawaii Preparatory Academy, was next introduced. Mr Taylor gave a running account of the history of the school during the past nine years - the very limited office space, with little protection from the weather; of the telephone service and eleven parties on one line, then two, and now a private line with a dial telephone. He told of the lack of space for private conferences with students, and when such conferences became necessary the only assurance of privacy would be to get into a car and drive away.

For some time the school has been operating on two campus sites, some two miles apart. Now the need is to complete a self-contained campus, build some athletic facilities such as tennis courts, repair some roads, install additional plumbing and electrical facilities for the school of the future. It is still the plan to hold the number to 300 maximum. Mr Taylor closed with "I cannot be grateful enough for the support the school has received."

ANNOUNCEMENTS: There will be a Corporate Communion for Laymen on February 23 in St Andrew's Cathedral, followed by breakfast at St Peter's Parish Hall. Mr William Ewing will be the guest speaker.

Convocation Banquet will be at 6:30 PM in the Meeting House of the Princess Kaiulani Hotel.

Immediately following this meeting, photograph of Convocation will be taken on the steps of St Andrew's Cathedral. Luncheon will follow in Davies Hall.

The Rev Joseph Pummill announced the dedication of St Mark's new parish hall on March 10th, in the evening.

The Rev Richard A Kirchoffer announced plans and schedules for Lent - 1964 under the leadership of The Rev Lee G E Stevens, Holy Cross. Clergy seminar, Jan 6 to 9, and for lay leaders, March 13 - 15. There will be teaching sessions on Oahu, at St Clement's, Epiphany, St Mark's, and at other locations; schools are also planned on Kauai, Molokai, Maui and Hawaii, and possibly other locations beyond the Hawaiian Islands.

Following are motions by The Rev E Lani Hanchett:

- 1 - That the minutes of the 61st Annual Convocation be prepared and submitted to the Ecclesiastical Authority for approval.
- 2 - That an expression of appreciation be extended to Mrs Raymond K Hoefener for her assistance as Secretary of the Convocation and for the many hours she has given in the Diocesan Office prior to Convocation.
- 3 - That an expression of appreciation be extended to the Dean and Staff of St Andrew's Cathedral for all they have done to assist with Convocation; and to the Rector and Vestry of St Peter's Parish for the use of the Parish Hall and for Convocation breakfast.
- 4 - That the Convocation express appreciation to the guests of the 61st Annual Convocation for the inspiration they have given to this occasion.

Motions were seconded and approved.

Noon Day Prayers were offered by The Rev Morimasa Kaneshiro, Benediction by Bishop Kennedy, and meeting adjourned at 12:00 Noon.

1. Proposal of the Diocesan Committee on Stewardship:

Every Parish and Mission cooperate with the Diocesan Division on Stewardship plans for 1963 in Stewardship Education.

Specifically, this means a Stewardship Committee in every Church whose Chairman will take the training course conducted by the Diocesan Division, and that every Church will conduct at least 3 or 4 Church-wide family visitations, these being in Lent, in September and in November, covering the following areas of Stewardship:

- (a) - In Lent, The Stewardship of Time, by attending in your own Church, a diocesan study of the Bishop's Book for Lent. "Key Words for Lent", by Dr George Barrett - copies available.
- (b) - In September, The Stewardship of Talents, by making a survey of the local Church.
- (c) - In November, The Stewardship of Treasure, by making a yearly inventory of your total stewardship as it is related to the work of the Church.

2. Research and Field Study:

The "Unit of Research and Field Study" - September 8th to 21st, a team from this Department will come from our National Headquarters to lay the foundation for a survey of our Church's work in Hawaii. Every congregation will be required to participate, both clergy and laity. Much will be required for each Church in gathering information, statistics, history, as well as reports on the population and economic trends. This work must be done conscientiously and thoroughly.

3. Episcopal Centennial Advance Program:

Our pledges for ECAP should be completed this year. This means a concentrated effort on the part of each pledgor to pay up in full. It means that each ECAP treasurer should receive the loyal support of the clergy and vestries, to see that these promises are fulfilled. Christians do not withhold from God what they have promised to God.

4. College Worker:

This important mission field in the life of our Church in Hawaii, calls for greater interest and participation on the part of all our people. Many Communicants from our islands, come to Honolulu to attend our Colleges and the University, and many are lost as far as the Church is concerned, for 4 years. We need a full-time College Worker, and if we can get assistance from the Church Society for College Work, every congregation should share the expense and responsibility of ministering to these students and faculty. Be ready to lend your aid when called upon.

THE HEADMASTER'S REPORT

Centennial Year 1962 - 1963

The largest independent church boys' school in the country (1,045) is also among the more venerable ones, celebrating its one hundredth birthday this present academic year. Founded by the Rev W R Scott and established by the Rt Rev Thomas Nettleship Staley, the first Anglican Bishop to the Sandwich Islands, Iolani has been educating boys of all racial backgrounds since the first Hawaiian lads were gathered together for instruction in Mr Scott's rectory in Lahaina, Maui on a day in January, 1863.

When Mr Scott resigned and returned to England, a few months later Bishop Staley placed the Rev George Mason as head of the school. He remained there until the return of Bishop Staley to England, and in 1870 closed the school in Lahaina and established it in Honolulu. From the very outset the English tradition of academic rigor was placed at the center of Iolani's curriculum. Over the years the school maintained its devotion to academic excellence as well as to the Christian practice of being open to any boy of good character and intelligence regardless of his racial origin.

Because of this, as early as the late eighteen seventies, when boys from China began to arrive in the Islands and somewhat later boys came from Japan, Iolani was the school to which these boys turned for help for their education.

The school is proud of its academic and democratic traditions and has steadfastly kept the academic life central to its purpose and at the same time refused to establish any racial quotas or favoritism so that today the student population is made up of boys of Chinese, Japanese and Caucasian descent in about equal numbers along with boys whose backgrounds represent over forty-five different racial and national backgrounds, including Hawaiian, Filipino, Portuguese, and Negro. For the past several years the graduates of Iolani have had the highest college entrance record of any school in the State.

As Iolani celebrates its centennial it can at the same time celebrate the fact that in its very "mix" it represents the cutting edge of the human experiment in our contemporary world. It provides leaders of tomorrow with a living experience of the human worth and dignity of every man regardless of his racial background.

There can be little use (and, indeed, great harm can come from it) in talking to youth of Christianity, democracy, character, excellence (moral or academic) unless it be practiced in fact. The greatest dangers to be avoided in educating our youth in Hawaii are racial favoritism and intellectual flabbiness. These dangers cannot be turned into the opportunities of racial acceptance, moral courage and academic strength until in humility we accept the continuing challenge of practicing with the help of God's patient and persistent grace, what we say we believe.

The challenge of academic and moral excellence is before Iolani as it celebrates its past and turns to its future. We of today can claim little credit for the school's past but we (boys, parents, faculty, staff and Board) carry the responsibility of making its future by what we at this present do. "By their fruits ye shall know them."

Faculty

There can be little doubt but that an intellectually competent and morally sensitive faculty is the source of a school's true greatness. In conformity to these touchstones Iolani has been making a concerted effort to recruit a faculty second to none.

It now appears that there will be less turnover in the faculty than hitherto because first, salaries have been increased to acceptable levels; second, initial appointments are made for a minimum period of three years, and third, perquisites including a generous retirement and insurance program have been instituted.

English

Reading has been substantially increased and emphasized. The whole reading and writing program in English in Iolani could not succeed without instructors who can perceptively channel free and open discussion on the piece of literature being considered.

The teaching of English in Iolani is concerned to help a boy help himself in becoming a literate, thinking, judging, imaginative and responsible young human being who is on his way to becoming an independent and free adult who can read and write about, and understand something of his total human experience. The result can only be that his judgments become more sound and his actions more purposeful; a result which is more nearly assured with homogeneous grouping, small classes, Honors sections and the Advanced Placement courses in the senior year for exceptionally able boys.

We have all heard of the "new math" and now we have a new approach to language. "Structural linguistics" is not new to the university, of course but it is new to the schools. It remains to be seen whether it has particular relevance here, but it cannot be known to have or not to have, until it is tried. The experiment is being observed with care and the evaluation will be made in proper time. Mr. Joseph H. Pynchon is chairman of the English Department.

Mathematics

Iolani is in its second year of a new and widely accepted program in mathematics. The facts concerning the development of the School Mathematics Study Group program (SMSG) are too well known to be repeated here. Iolani was the first school in Hawaii to institute this new program of looking at mathematics through this new inductive and logical process. The aim, of course, is to prepare boys more adequately for the "new" world of science and mathematics.

The proof of the value of the program comes from three sources: the boys' keen interest, hard work and satisfaction, the faculty's excitement in teaching and their general gratification with the results, and the obviously improved record in the Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Tests (PSAT) scores as well as the higher scores in the Scholastic Aptitude Tests (SAT).

To accomplish this program all but two members of the department returned to National Science Foundation Summer Institutes and the whole department underwent a voluntary in-training course last year.

This present year one section of the sixth grade has been introduced to SMSG with gratifying results and it is planned next year to extend the program down through the fourth grade. At the other end of the scale Advanced Placement Calculus is currently offered and it appears that in our year's time, Iolani may offer a "second" year of college mathematics. There seems to be no fixed limits to the degree of advancement a boy may achieve in mathematics in school.

History

Intellectual ferment and academic creativity has found fertile ground in the History Department. Two years ago a new course in World Geography was introduced in the eighth grade and has succeeded in an unanticipated degree in stimulating boys to a keen awareness and curiosity about their world. Geography, changing more rapidly than map-makers can keep pace, has infected all history courses at Iolani.

Even more has been a new emphasis on independent projects. A phenomenon that has come into all departments, independent study is the means whereby a boy can follow through on a particular academic concern in addition to his regular course work. There is much more to do to encourage this creative form of study on the part of students, but the results (carefully channeled in the rudimentary ways of sound scholarship techniques) can only lead to the enlarged perspective of boys and an increased depth of their understanding.

Another inevitable result of the increased awareness of the world in which we live, is the addition of certain new courses in history which have been added to the history offerings as electives in the junior and senior years: Asian history (now in its second year), Russian history, Problems in American Government, Comparative Economic and Political Systems and a freshman college (Advanced Placement) course in United States history, all established this year.

The soundness of the judgment for putting these courses in the curriculum is seen in the results, for both boys and the history faculty have demonstrated enlarged achievement and greater satisfaction.

Science

It would be difficult to identify that area of the curriculum which has had the greatest academic ferment but certainly science would be in the forefront. So far as Iolani is concerned we have noted rather startling developments, all of which stem from the intellectual revolution in science. It has been said that 80% of the scientific information known today was unknown twenty years ago. This may be a bit of hyperbole. Nevertheless enormous changes have come about and they are reflected in that school that has a science department as inquisitive and alert as ours.

Over two years ago the new course in physics was put into the curriculum of Iolani. Known as the Physical Science Study Committee (PSSC) curriculum and supported by the National Science Foundation, the emphasis through text and a greatly enlarged experimental program has been to acquaint students with the principles (many newly discovered) which undergird all modern physics.

The National Science Foundation in conjunction with learned societies, university scholars and secondary school teachers has underwritten the creation of other new programs in science including the Biological Sciences Curriculum Study (BSCS) and the Chemical Educational Material Study (CHEM ED).

Both of these courses have been instituted at Iolani. The science department's instructor in chemistry, Rose Pickering, was chosen by the National Science Foundation as one of fifty chosen chemistry instructors across the country to teach and evaluate the new CHEM ED program.

The department of science introduced an Advanced Placement (college level) physics course this year for the very able boys. In time, Advanced Placement sections in chemistry and biology will be introduced. Under the guidance of the chairman, William Kleyboecker, certain members of the department have recently designed a new course for eighth grade science, leaving behind the potpourri of the old general science and created a program carefully designed through class and laboratory work to introduce younger boys into the principles of the various fields of science.

The day is not too far off when other new upper-class courses in science will be offered as electives. One faculty member has already written the curriculum for a new course in geology, while we know that astronomy will soon be a subject we will be teaching.

The interest in science outside of the classroom is evident in the active electronics and oceanographic clubs. Iolani has its own ham radio station and forty-five boys are involved in regular ocean trips seeking out some of the secrets of the amazing life in the Pacific.

Languages

New developments in the teaching of languages are quite as exciting as those in other fields. Two principles in the teaching of language are clearly apparent: first, the earlier languages can be taught the better; second, the aural-oral method is clearly the best means of teaching a language.

It is not always economically feasible for a school to offer foreign languages in the lower grades but Iolani has been able to establish the teaching of Chinese (the National language), Japanese and French beginning with the fourth grade and the results have been gratifying. Begun in 1960-61, present sixth graders have three years of their chosen language behind them and they will be able to continue their foreign language in the seventh grade, so that by the time they have five more years (two in grades seven and eight and three in grades nine through twelve) they will have had eight years! With this will come a facility in their second language that will mean genuine proficiency.

From the fourth grade up the aural-oral method is used in teaching modern languages. This year the language department introduced the now famous "Glastonbury" Audio-Lingual Materials (A. LM) developed at Yale University. In the course of the first year they learn to speak and achieve a listening comprehension of the language. The results are that boys now are enjoying the process of learning a language, and become proficient in it much more rapidly. They reinforce their classroom experiences through regular sessions in the Language Laboratory and with homework assigned on language records.

In the Upper School modern languages (French, German, Spanish, Russian, Chinese and Japanese) and Latin are offered. For a number of boys Latin is a requirement in the seventh and eighth grades and many elect to carry it on through Latin IV or V. Advanced work in languages beyond the required three years in grades nine through twelve, is now offered in French, Russian and German.

Music

No human being can appreciate his existence in fullness without music. Beginning with kindergarten and throughout his course in Iolani, a boy has the opportunity to have music every year! In kindergarten through eighth grade there are prescribed courses and there following comes band, choir and glee club. (Curiously enough, boys who participate in choir and glee club normally improve in their verbal scores in English.)

Because of this intensive program in music which next year will be expanded both instrumentally (beginning band and orchestra in addition to regular band) and vocally (a chorus group to be added to the two present choirs and glee club) Iolani is becoming full of the Sound of Music! Music lightens the heart, deepens the sensitivity and altogether helps boys in becoming more sensitive and finer human beings.

Art

For years Iolani has had creative arts as part of the curriculum in grades one through eight. This past year, a full-fledged department for the whole school was formed and a new chairman of the Art Department, himself a practicing artist, was appointed. A prescribed course was established in creative art for the ninth grade and a college credit elective course in creative art, appreciation and history of art was instituted for upper classmen.

A boy can scarcely appreciate the visual aspects of his total reality unless he has some awareness of the graphic arts - painting, sculpturing, ceramics and photography, not to mention some of the more contemporary expression in collage and the like. What has been done thus far in the art program at Iolani indicates that we are on the right track. The evidence of the boys' worth and interest in art suggests clearly enough its salutary benefits.

Religion

The awareness of the essential meaning in the mystery of our existence comes to us more certainly through religion than by any other means. It is perhaps the most ancient of civilized man's interests, for it has to do with the ultimate questions of the beginning (where did I, where did "it" all come from?) and the end (where will I end, where will "it" all wind up?).

Curiously enough, boys - little boys - as well as wise men of long years have asked these questions over and over again. In short, man is a religious being who asks ultimate questions regardless of his age.

Consequently, it is of importance - one might say of crucial importance - to place religion (its study and practice) in the center of a school. Symbolically, at Iolani the Chapel is in the center of the campus. For the boys and faculty it is really the center, for here the whole Iolani community worships three times weekly finding through the practice and wisdom of Christian worship new dimensions to their deepest questions and aspirations.

This religious experience is objectified in the classroom for through instruction boys gain some knowledge of the literature and history of Christianity, ethics and theology.

We cannot be so bold as to say that Christianity is the way or indeed the only way to a knowledge and experience of the ultimate mystery that we call God. We can say that it is our way, given through the hundred years of Iolani's history and the ancient Christian faith. This Christian tradition of ours does not preclude the possibility nor the desirability of coming to know and appreciate the religious ways of other peoples. Indeed, we know that intelligence and charity, informed by Christianity, dictates to our consciences that we look at the religious ways of others with genuine curiosity and interest.

We know, too, that in the contemporary scene there is great religious illiteracy. This we are seeking to correct so far as our boys are concerned not only in the courses in religion but in history and English courses. Next year the Department of Religion will make a thorough study of the courses in religion with the purpose of revising them in such a manner as to improve the religious literacy of our boys and to relate religion more realistically to other course offerings in the curriculum, particularly English and history.

Physical Education and Interscholastic Athletics

No endeavor in school brings any more gratification than the physical education and athletic activities. In physical education (the school time program) the aim is to give every boy the training and capacity to develop, coordinate and discipline his body through a rich variety of physical development, tests and games. In the interscholastic program the goal is to give as many boys as is possible the experience of competitive athletics in twelve different sports.

Our physical education department and our teacher-coaches are trained and dedicated, and now with the new gym, pool, locker buildings, tennis courts, track and baseball diamond the facilities are superb.

Four years ago Iolani abandoned athletic scholarships, the first private school on Oahu to initiate such a policy. One hundred and fifty-eight boys from kindergarten through grade twelve are currently receiving scholarships only on the grounds of academic ability, good character and financial need. Sports are played with all our heart for the development of the "whole" boy. No boy is bought. In interscholastic football we are half the size of the next largest school in the league but our boys always give a decent account of themselves on the field.

The Lower School

What we have said with respect to the major areas of study refer with almost as much import to the course of study in the Lower School (kindergarten through sixth). Because of the native ability of the youngsters their program is accelerated beginning in kindergarten in which by the middle of the year the youngsters are prepared for the beginnings of reading. Phonics are stressed and in first grade the reading, writing program is carried forward fairly rapidly. The academic subjects are introduced with a proper care of the physical and emotional development of the youngsters.

By the fourth grade boys have a clear command of the reading, writing and arithmetical skills and are now prepared to enter the various subject areas in greater depth. The academic work is now departmentalized in several areas, 1) English, 2) history and geography, 3) science and mathematics, 4) foreign language, 5) religion, 6) music, 7) art and 8) physical education with special teachers in each.

By this means instructors are given the opportunity to teach in the field of their greatest competency and the boys have the stimulating experience of being exposed to several teachers, with the result that they gain decided educational benefits. Inevitably they accelerate faster in the subject areas, achieve better grades and learn more.

A New Counseling Program

It has been clear for sometime that Iolani boys could profit from a counseling program in academic and social adjustment. While every instructor has a personal concern for the total welfare of each boy, we needed a trained and expert person to guide us all in the important tasks of helping boys to make finer academic and social adjustments. Mr Roland Chinatti was appointed last fall, a program was carefully planned and instituted by him using the help of special faculty counselors for each class. The results have demonstrated the wisdom of establishing the position and program, through boy and parent satisfaction.

The Directors of Studies

This report on the course of study at Iolani would not be possible were it not for dedicated and diligent work and leadership of the Director of Studies of the Upper School, the Rev David P Coon and the Director of Studies for the Lower School, Miss Louise Baack who both with their staffs are a constant source of gratification to all concerned with Iolani.

Admissions and College Counseling

Two of the key responsibilities in the school are in these areas, admitting the boys who can profit most from an Iolani education and in counseling them and their parents on college plans. Both are painstaking, demanding responsibilities. Iolani is fortunate in having a Director of Admissions and College Counselor who excels in the requirements of the position.

The Office of Development and Alumni Relations

The modern school's needs for community, parent and alumni support for its total educational program will increase greatly in the months and years ahead. Consequently, the school bears the responsibility of establishing closer ties of communication with its benefactors and, at the same time, of seeking ways of serving the larger good of the community.

The latter is being done under the guidance of the new Director of Information and Alumni Affairs for Iolani. Thanks to the KNDI radio station, sixteen programs prepared by Iolani faculty are being heard weekly over the airwaves on many facets of education. This was all initiated and planned by the Director, James Loomis.

With regard to our parents and alumni the Iolani Bulletin is being published quarterly to keep them fully informed on the school and its educational concerns. A new closeness between the school and the Alumni Association is being nurtured.

As months go by this office will be drawn more and more into the long range planning for the development of the school. As time goes on the Director cannot help but become more important to the future of the school.

The Business and Housekeeping Side of our Life

The endless planning and detailed work that makes up the work of our business department, dining hall, and grounds and maintenance are never fully appreciated by the uninitiated. But from one who knows it from the inside I can testify that we can be nothing but tremendously grateful for the dedicated and tireless work of our Business Manager, Cafeteria Manager, Superintendent of Grounds and their staffs, who spend our money carefully, feed us well and keep our campus beautiful.

Iolani Is For Boys

The School has for its hundred years been a boys school. Today, in our fast moving society we believe the reasons for continuing as all boys are sounder than ever before. First, Hawaii has an open life. Boy-girl relationships have ample opportunity for full expression, and we encourage them through a number of school dances and parties. But in the serious business of preparing boys for college and the rigorous competitive life they will live as adults we believe the school day is best spent free from the distraction of their peers of the fair sex.

Furthermore, it is clear that coeducation, for all its virtues, was something that grew in America, not because it was considered the most desirable means of education, but because of economic necessity. When states took on compulsory education, communities simply could not afford to provide for separate schools for boys and girls.

On the other hand private or independent schools (and colleges) have from their beginnings in England and New England been separated. In the private school work the overwhelming majority are schools for either boys or girls.

There are certain practical considerations: In an all boys school it is not only possible but necessary to involve boys in the school newspaper, the school annual, the choir and the glee club. They are led into certain experiences, therefore, that they might not as readily get in a coeducational situation.

There is still a more cogent reason for Iolani being all boys. In contemporary life the increased demands on fathers is all too evident. The old-fashioned picture of father and son going off fishing, hiking or hunting, of being pals, of being man to man with one another is more a fiction than reality. Fathers, be they in politics, business or the professions, are having to spend more time at work and community responsibilities, with the inevitable result that they have less and less time to develop manly characteristics in their sons.

Thus it behooves our all boys school with a majority of men teachers to fill some of the role that society has forced the father to abdicate. Mother cannot take father's place. Yet the necessity for boys to grow into decisive, independent men grows greater every day. The demand for men of judgment who can make sound decisions will increase enormously in America over the next several generations. Iolani believes an all boys school is in this best position to accomplish this purpose.

The Boys

There are too many facets to the curricular and extra curricular life of our boys to tell about in detailed statistics whether we speak of their high I. Q. 's, their achievements in entering college, their athletic prowess, their singing, their dramatics, accomplishments of their student council, etc. etc.

But one thing stands out above all others this year. The members of the National Honor Society, under the presidency of Michael Au, 163 have proposed to the faculty and Headmaster that the boys of Iolani be given the opportunity of instituting an honor system in examinations in which there would be no faculty proctoring and the boys would be solely on their honor. This, when taken with the realization that there are ever increasing demands to achieve grades in an atmosphere of keen competition, is remarkable. One would think that as the pace of the academic life quickens and the more rigorous and competitive the work becomes, the last thing in the world the boys would want is an honor system.

Yet quite the reverse is true. And perhaps it is not so surprising after all. For as the intelligence of boys is sharpened and as their curiosity is quickened, their regard for truth is enhanced and their concern for personal honor heightened.

As this report is being written their representations for an honor system are being weighed by the executive faculty committee. Both the boys and the faculty know we must move cautiously in this area but move we will, so long as the boys have the intellectual acuteness, the moral courage and the leadership to want the honor system. Here is the stuff of which manhood is made.

The Centennial

Thanks to the generosity of certain local foundations we have been able to invite three distinguished educators to join us March 14, 15, 16 and 17 of 1963 to lead us in our Centennial Convocation around the theme, "Education in a Free Society."

Harold Howe, II, Superintendent of the Scarsdale Schools in New York, the Rev John Crocker, headmaster of Groton School, Groton, Massachusetts, and Mr Francis Parkman, president of the National Association of Independent Schools, are men of wide experience and repute in the world of education.

It is our hope that they will bring to us and our many friends in private and public education a deeper understanding of some of the educational challenges of our times.

We began our Centennial with the dedication of the new gymnasium and athletic facilities by His Grace, Lord Geoffrey Fisher, Archbishop of Lambeth, at a beautiful service for the whole school in the new gym on October 9. His Grace won the affection of the boys and it seemed to be reciprocated for he asked to return to talk to the seniors, which he did two days later, much to their pleasure and satisfaction!

Later in October, Iolani celebrated Episcopal Schools Week by a centennial conference with all the Episcopal schools in Hawaii. Chairmanned by the Director of Studies of the Upper School, some two hundred faculty members of Episcopal Schools had the opportunity to examine their roles with greater care.

Our boys have entered the Centennial spirit with vigor and are planning a Centennial Ball for the whole Iolani family and their friends on February 22.

Not to be outdone, our wonderful parents have sponsored certain special events: the Hula Bowl on January 6, and the now famous golf tournament on January 26, at the Waialae Golf Club. Under the general chairmanship of Angel Maehara and the good offices of Francis Ii Brown, Kenneth Brown, Richard Holtzman and the officers and professionals at the Waialae Golf Club, eight famous golfers played an exhibition match for the benefit of the Iolani Centennial Development Fund. Bing Crosby, Fred MacMurray, Phil Harris, Ed Crowley the ranks of stardom and amateur golf, and Sam Snead, Cary Middlecoff, Jimmy Demaret and Bo Wininger of the professional golf world all combined in two four-somes to give 3,500 duffers an interesting and rewarding afternoon and to the Development Fund some five thousand dollars. We will be always in the debt of these good gentlemen.

Now our parents (and the boys working with them) are preparing for the Centennial Carnival, coming April 19 and 20. We cannot report on it at this writing out all of us hope that they will be greatly successful. Certainly the school owes them a debt of gratitude.

Of the Future

The necessity for moving forward in our enterprise is clearly apparent. Iolani, without an endowment for one hundred years, now must seek sources of help that will endow substantial increases in faculty salaries, chairs for master teachers, faculty leaves-of-absence, faculty summer study grants, annual library accessions, new courses of study in astronomy, geology and meteorology, to name but a few initial needs to insure the quality of the school.

At the same time the physical development of our facilities cannot be neglected. There is a clear need for a new library - humanities and science center that will house a collection of at least thirty thousand volumes, (carrels and seminar rooms), an audio-visual library, a center for programed teaching materials, a language laboratory, a small museum, a planetarium and an amphitheatre that will be provided with all necessary equipment for lectures in science, astronomy and mathematics, not to mention the humanities.

Such a center would serve the boys and faculty with facilities that will be needed to meet today's and tomorrow's demands for greater knowledge.

The Iolani Family and Friends

Only through the continued and increased support of our entire Iolani family - parents, alumni, friends, businesses and foundations can the needs be met. And only will they be realized as the school properly performs its job with diligence, intelligence, imagination and faith.

The Board of Governors of Iolani, the faculty and staff are dedicated to carrying out the goals and to meet the needs of our school in our time.

For me the most gratifying experience is to observe our boys grow toward splendid manhood. Almost as gratifying is the joy of working alongside of our Board, parents, alumni and friends. No Headmaster could ask for more.

Respectfully submitted,

(THE REV) BURTON A MACLEAN
Headmaster

REPORT OF ST ANDREW'S PRIORY - 1962

ENROLLMENT

The total enrollment is slightly under last year's as the figures below will show, and yet we have waiting lists for half the grades in the school while there are vacancies in the other six grades. It is unfortunate that we cannot streamline the applicants to the right grades! However, our experience has shown us that overcrowding in any one area of the school seriously interferes with the good order, good teaching and adequate learning in the whole school. Our present enrollment is ideal academically speaking, but is productive of financial worries.

	January 1962	December 1962
Grades 1 - 6	169	158
Grades 7 - 8	142	129
Grades 9 - 12	240	249
Total	551	536

GRADUATES

On the seventh of June, 1962, forty-seven students were graduated. All of these are now continuing their educations in college, nursing schools, or business training schools. Bishop Bayne, the Executive Officer of the Anglican Communion, told us that the Priory is the most cosmopolitan school in the Church, and that he meets former Priory students in the farthest corners of the world. Our products are our best advertisement!

FACULTY AND ADMINISTRATIVE STAFF

4 Sisters of the Community of the Transfiguration
25 Full time teachers
7 Part time teachers
1 Chaplain
1 Cafeteria Manager
1 Bookkeeper
1 School Secretary
3 Clerical workers (one of whom is also the school nurse)

IMPROVEMENTS

Very few improvements could be made in this year because salaries and the ordinary running expenses of the school absorbed more than the current income from tuition. However, by having only one instead of two classes of sixth graders as in previous years, a larger room was made available to our commercial classes. Improvements to it make it a more efficient teaching area for business classes. With the addition of modern new desks and chairs for the book-keeping classes a long overdue modernization of that department of the school's program was provided. Minor improvements were made in several areas of the school buildings and grounds.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

The aim of our religious education program in its totality is to implement, or in modern terms, to give existential reality to, the Priory's purpose of developing firm Christian character in its students, in order that they may go out from its influence prepared to give Christian witness and leadership in their chosen professions, in Church, state and family life. Regular religious instruction in the faith as this Church has received the same is given on the same academic level as in all their other subjects. During the course of the year there were eleven Baptisms and nineteen Confirmations at our regular chapel service in St Andrew's Cathedral. Other girls were baptized and confirmed in their parish churches. Sixty-four percent of the student body consists of baptized Christians. Thirty percent are confirmed members of the Episcopal Church. Our purpose is not to proselytize from other Christian Churches, but through our daily chapel services in the Cathedral, religious instruction, and living and learning in Christian community to present the fullness of the Christian life in all the attractive power inherent in it.

ACCREDITIZATION

Since 1942 the Priory has been continuously accredited by the Northwest Association of Secondary Schools and Colleges. In 1949 the Western College Association became an accrediting association. The University of Hawaii and the colleges in this state are accredited by the Western Association, while the secondary schools, including the Priory, are accredited by the Northwest. In July of 1962 the Western Association created a commission for accrediting the secondary schools. For the good of all the schools and colleges concerned and for practical reasons the Northwest Association recommends that the secondary schools transfer membership to the Western Association. With regret the Priory will be terminating what has been for twenty-one years a happy and satisfactory relationship, in order to join with the other accredited schools in this state as members of the Western Association.

GENERAL REMARKS

For the first time in many years the Priory had a summer school session for a picked group of our own high school students. It has been our experience that our students do not benefit from the English and mathematics courses as are taught in the other summer schools.

Spanish has been added to our foreign language curriculum. Typing and speech classes have been introduced as compulsory subjects for all ninth graders, as we consider the ability to type and adequate speech techniques necessary tools for successful work in high school and college. An after school class in typing has been introduced as an optional class for those in grades seven and eight who desire to take it.

Hildur Colot, a Priory sophomore, won the second prize in THE LIVING CHURCH Essay Contest for 1962, while two other Priory students, Ann Bush in grade eleven and Christine Yeager in grade ten, attained Honorable Mention in the same contest.

In promoting the standard of a life of service our students took part in and contributed to all the Church, school and civic projects as in former years. In addition, the student body collected sixty cartons of clothes, blankets and non-perishable foods for the Hong Kong Relief Drive; contributed $100.00 for the Guam relief fund; sponsored the settling of a Dutch-Indonesian couple in Honolulu; and in a book drive grades seven and eight collected 1,000 books for Palama Settlement. A group of about twenty girls is taking an active part in the Pacific and Asian Affairs Council. The high point in the year for the confirmed girls was being able to attend the Centennial Eucharist at which Lord Fisher of Lambeth celebrated, and for the two upper classes meeting with him personally for a long session in Queen Emma Hall.

BENEFACTORS

Once again the Associates of the Transfiguration contributed substantially to particular needs of the school. From the proceeds of their annual sale of Sweet Bread they gave $925.00 to the school library, and $1,122.00 to assist in the financing of the Priory Annual, KA ALELE. This latter donation freed the minds of the members of the KA ALELE staff from financial worries, thus enabling them to concentrate all their energies on producing what is hoped will be a superior book for 1963. Other smaller benefactions from a variety of sources were put into the fund for improvements. One individual Associate provided a much needed new rug for the Teachers' Lounge.

NEEDS

Office space for the administration is too limited and in every way inadequate, but chiefly in lack of privacy for personal interviews. This could be in some measure remedied by turning the Sisters' private dining room in the Main Building into an office for the principal. This in turn would necessitate an additional area in the Faculty House being reserved for the Sisters' private use for a dining room and kitchen. With a not too large outlay of money, if it were available, the necessary structural changes could be made this summer. Serious limitations in the number of classrooms constitute a chronic problem. We have the plans drawn up for a second story to Sellon Hall (the elementary school building) over which we dream, while money from the building fund is used up in the routing improvements that must be made in our present buildings to modernize them and fit them to our current needs.

TUITION - TEACHERS

On the faculty we have a number of highly qualified and excellent teachers who are worth far more than the basic salary we pay. To provide a more just compensation for them, as well as to set up some sort of retirement plan for those who are desirous of one, an increase in tuition will be necessary for the next school year.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

We take this opportunity to express our appreciation to the Bishop and diocesan treasurer for their continued interest and concern. EXCERPTS FROM REPORT OF
THE HAWAII PREPARATORY ACADEMY

In the fall of 1956, 69 students enrolled at "the new boys school" in Kamuela on the Big Island of Hawaii.

Sixty of them were boarding students, coming from the various Islands of the yet-to-become 50th State.

There were few visible reasons, if any, why they had come. The school, then known as the Hawaii Episcopal Academy, had been established in 1949 in abandoned Marine Corps barracks built during the war on church land. For the physical plant, austerity was the word; some would consider it a charitable use of the word.

But there were other reasons why the enrollment of 29 in 1954 had more than doubled by 1956 and why applications for admission were to continue to outstrip the physical capacities of the school.

In the spring of 1954, it had become clear there was an undeniable need for a strictly college preparatory boarding school in Hawaii.

That summer Mr James Monroe Taylor, Assistant to the Headmaster of famed Choate School and head of its Lower School, arrived to be Headmaster of the Academy.

The new Headmaster set out to build the scholastic program and faculty for an enrollment which was to expand far beyond the 29 students he had found upon arrival.

With an expanding enrollment, the Academy was reorganized in 1957 as the Hawaii Preparatory Academy, a non-sectarian school for boys, grades seven through twelve. It was incorporated as an eleemosynary institution.

That same year marked the beginning of plans to establish the school on a permanent basis with an adequate physical plant. The Academy was on its way as first and foremost an academic institution.

With the fulfillment of academic needs came more applications for admission. In the two years from 1956 to 1958, enrollment again nearly doubled from 69 to 115.

Facilities at the old campus had been outgrown. Upkeep of the old buildings was costly; tenure, uncertain. In the summer of 1959, two new dormitories were erected on a new 55 acre campus 2-1/2 miles from the old campus. One dormitory was moved from the old campus to the new site. During the past four years, the Academy has operated on two campuses 2-1/2 miles apart.

Of the 208 students presently enrolled, 164 are boarding students living in dormitories on the new campus. All attend classes in the now crowded quarters of the old campus to which they are transported by bus, often several times a day.

The urgent need now is to complete a basic, self-contained campus for the 165 boarding students now accommodated by present housing facilities. Day students will be provided for in the process.

It is upon this building program that the Hawaii Preparatory Academy is now embarked. Its completion in August of 1963 will end four years of dual campus operation, a procedure that has been necessary but also costly and disruptive of school routine.

THIS IS THE EDUCATION OFFERED

Every boy upon satisfying the minimum requirements for graduation has taken the proper courses for admission to any college or university in the country. The minimum requirements include four years of English, three years of a foreign language, three years of secondary school level mathematics (two years of Algebra and one of Plane Geometry), Physics or Chemistry, three years of History.

The Academy teaches four years each of English, French, Spanish, and Latin; the various history courses, including Ancient, Medieval, European, and United States; the major sciences of Biology, Chemistry, and Physics, as well as General Science courses for the lower grades; Mathematics, ranging from Arithmetic through first and second year Algebra, the Geometries, Trigonometry, and Elementary Functions and Statistics. Advanced placement courses are offered in English, Latin, French, History and Calculus.

With this academic preparation, Academy students have made an enviable record. One recent graduate is on the Dean's list in his first year at the Air Force Academy, one is in his 4th year at Yale in Engineering, three are at Cornell, three at Pomona, three at Stanford where they have been accepted for Advanced Placement. Other colleges where our graduates are found include: Dartmouth, Trinity, Colby, Colorado College, Park College, Oregon State University, University of Oregon, University of California at Berkeley and Davis, University of Hawaii, and many others.

ENROLLMENT AT HAWAII PREPARATORY ACADEMY

The need for the academic training offered at the Academy is reflected by the steady growth in enrollment, which has now reached the capacity of the boarding school. Each year, applications greatly exceed admissions.

James M Taylor, Headmaster

CANTERBURY HOUSE

1962 was another year of struggle at Canterbury House (popularly known as C House). It was a struggle to transform C House from a club house into a church on the campus. The transformation was attempted at the beginning of the school year in September although by April it was clear to the students that such an attempt was going to be made.

The club approach was that Canterbury House should have a balanced program of worship, study, service and fellowship. The trouble with this was that the fellowship activities dominated the rest, thereby turning C House into a social club.

The church approach is that Canterbury House should be a twofold community of worshipping God and witnessing in the life of the campus. This approach did not originate here; the College Work Division of the National Council has been encouraging all Canterbury Houses throughout the nation to be the church on the campus and not a social club.

The first thing we did in September when school opened was to schedule daily worship Monday through Friday. By "we" I mean a handful of concerned students and myself. The worship schedule has been as follows:

Monday, 5:30 pm Evening Prayer
Tuesday, 12:15 pm Morning Prayer
Wednesday, 7:00 am Holy Communion and breakfast
Thursday, 12:15 pm Holy Communion
Friday, 12:15 pm Litany

The students themselves conduct Evening and Morning Prayer and Litany. We have not had turn-away crowds, but people have been attending these services. We intend to carry on daily worship, but we may drastically revise the time and type of services.

The next thing we did was to organize a Bishop's Committee to replace the executive committee of the club. The following people were elected:

Senior Warden: Franklin Chun

Junior Warden: Gertrude Horii

Clerk-Treasurer: Daisy Lee

Members: Willette Ah Cook

Mary Jo Farrington

Susan Hoss

Wallace Kunukau

Mark Wimbush

The faculty advisor for the school year 1962-3 is Mr Rennie Culver of the English Department. As the chaplain, I am to the Committee an advisor, a resource person, and Bishop's representative. The Committee was organized in December, so it is hard to say how it will work.

I wish to express my thanks to those who assisted C House in 1962, especially, our Bishop, the Rev Eric Eastman, the Rev David Coon, the Rev Richard Kirchoffer, and Rev Reginald Rodriguez, Canon Eugene Cannell, Bishop Stephen Bayne, Dr William Lampard of the University, Mr Robert Molison of Iolani School, Wallace Kunukau who was past president of C House, David Matsumoto who was the treasurer, and the other students who in numerous ways helped C House.

Finally, let me point out that the University of Hawaii is not the only place where college work is being carried on. We have the Rev Covy E Blackmon at the Church College of Hawaii at Laie, the Rev Iver J Torgeson, Jr at Maunaolu College on Maui, and the Ven Gerald P Loweth at the University of Hawaii, Hilo Branch. Pray for us in our ministry on the college campus.

REPORT OF THE ARMY AND NAVY CENTER AND THE DIOCESAN HOUSE 1962

The Army and Navy Center continued its usefulness in 1962 as it has done in the past years. In fact, it was used more than in the previous year by our men stationed in Hawaii in the service of their country.

The Diocesan House has been a regular meeting place for the Oahu Clericus, the Executive Board of the Episcopal Churchwomen of Hawaii, St Christopher's Men, Youth Groups, the Philippine Independent Church congregation, and the weekly sewing meetings of the Diocesan Altar Guild.

Diocesan Committees meet at the house for luncheons. It is used for the workroom for the mailing of THE HAWAIIAN CHURCH CHRONICLE. It has been the scene of several ordination receptions, a birthday party for one of the missionaries, and a wedding.

The service men have been more of the type who have enjoyed the facilities of the House. They have prepared some of their meals. They find it a very relaxing place to enjoy television, record player, reading and writing.

At Thanksgiving and Christmas they enjoyed sharing with the hostess the preparation of their dinners - stuffing turkeys, cooking pies, etc. They had great fun in trimming their Christmas tree.

The guest apartment has been used a great deal, especially during the summer. One of the highlights of the use of the House was when the Most Rev Michael Yashiro, Presiding Bishop of Japan, came for the opening of the 100th Anniversary of the coming of the Church to Hawaii. He and his party of twenty-one were guests of the House and enjoyed using the facilities for preparing their meals, etc.

There has been only minor repair work on the Center. The back porch had to be repaired and new steps added.

It was a pleasant and useful year.

1962 ANNUAL REPORT - DIOCESAN LAYMEN

The Annual Washington's Birthday Corporate Communion was held at St Andrew's Cathedral with breakfast following at the Armed Services YMCA. The Very Rev Paul Roberts was the guest speaker.

Several meetings of the Keymen of the parishes and missions on Oahu were held to outline the work of the men for the year.

In May a three-day conference was held at Mokuleia to which came men and women from the Island of Oahu, as well as representatives from all of the outer islands. This meeting was conducted by the Rev Howard Harper and Miss Frances Young, National Council appointees for the direction of laymen's and women's work. As a conclusion of their visit, the laymen of Oahu put on a western-style barbecue at the Youth Center of Holy Nativity Parish.

Shortly after this function, it was necessary for me, due to a transfer in position, to move to the Island of Hawaii.

The men helped in various ways for 100th Anniversary celebrations during the balance of the year.

THE EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN OF HAWAII

The Episcopal Churchwomen of Hawaii representing the 42 parishes and missions throughout the Missionary District of Honolulu (Oahu 24, Hawaii 8, Kauai 4, Maui 3, Molokai 1, Okinawa 1, Guam 1) is the Executive Board of the women's work in the church. Cooperating with the National Council through the General Division of Women's Work in the program of the church, the women have given faithful and dedicated service. This devoted participation has not only been within their own parishes or missions but they have tried to share in the mission of the whole Church - in the diocese, the nation and the world.

St Barnabas Hospital in Osaka, Japan was one of the National Supply Assignments for 1962. During five Fridays in Lent beginning with March 16th, many women of the various parishes and missions on Oahu gathered at the Von Holt Room on the grounds of the St Andrew's Cathedral to sew layettes. The women on the Neighbor Islands shared in the assignment by either sewing layettes or by contributing money. A total of 672 pieces of clothing at the cost of $237.60 was sent to Japan. To defray the expenses contributions were made by the women of the parishes and missions. The second assignment was to send $26.00 for Muriel Dang, a student from Hawaii who is attending St Margaret's House in Berkeley, California (an Episcopal Graduate School for women in Christian Education). This amount was requested to help defray her household expenses.

During the Lenten sewing session a study program was presented on Latin America and Mexico. Dr Donald Johnston, Professor of History at the University of Hawaii spoke on Latin America; Mrs Theodore Emmanuel, member of Calvary Church and Church Periodical Club Director, spoke on Brazil; Mrs Francis Adams, a member of St Andrew's Cathedral who previously lived in Central America for three years during which time she did work with the Bishop there, spoke on Central America; Mrs Charles M Loomis, immediate past president of the Women of St Barnabas, and Mrs Harry S Kennedy, the Bishop's wife, spoke on Mexico.

The continuous Chain of Prayer was maintained during the Friday mornings at the Parke Memorial Chapel by the many women who attended the Lenten sewing sessions. Meditations and prayer were prepared under the direction of the Devotions Secretary.

The Church Periodical Club of the Missionary District of Honolulu "went around the world in 1962." In accepting the challenge that this Ministry of the Printed Word is "A Tool of God" and heeding Bishop Kennedy's plea that the Church in Hawaii extend the area of its giving, the Church Periodical Club sent its message in gifts of books, magazines, cards and money to the far ends of the globe; from the Hansen's Disease settlements of Airakuen and Nanseien in Okinawa to the Bishop Tucker Seminary in Uganda, West Africa, from Tinan Seminary to St Mark's School in Bluefields Nicaragua; from the Philippines to St Stephen's Missions in Yukon, Alaska; from Chading, Taiwan to All Souls in Naha, Okinawa; and here at home, the clergy, the seminarians at the Church Divinity School of the Pacific, University of Hawaii, the new City and County jail, hospital, and institutions were remembered. $337.81 was sent to the National Book Fund.

The District Altar Guild had a very busy year providing altar linens, surplices, stole sets, tippets and other needs of the Missionary District of Honolulu. Besides making new vestments they repaired many used vestments and stoles, reconditioning them into further usefulness. This remarkable job of continuous sewing was done by only four women who faithfully sewed together every week throughout most of the past year.

The women participated in the program of the United Church women and attended the World Day of Prayer, March 8, 1962, May Fellowship Day, May 4, 1962 and World Community Day, November 2, 1962. Several Episcopal women are officers on the United Church Women's Boards and are contributing greatly to this Ecumenical Mission of Christian women.

Two Island wide meetings were held this year at Tenney Hall, each one opening with a Holy Communion Service at St Andrew's Cathedral. After each meeting a lovely luncheon was served at Davies Hall by the Women of St Andrew's, honoring the special guests. On May 29th Miss Frances Young, Executive Director of the General Division of Women's Work, spoke on "The Changing Pattern of Women's Work." It was a great privilege and an inspiration for the women to hear Miss Young and to discuss informally with her the future role of women as members of the Church. On October 11th the women were honored by the visit of Lady Fisher who spoke of her experience in the Mother Church of England as the wife of an Archbishop of Canterbury. She charmed the audience with her personal recollections, her graciousness and her sincere interpretation of the role of women in the Church.

On October 2, 1962 the women gave a luncheon for Mrs John B Bentley, wife of the Right Rev John B Bentley, at the Haiku Gardens in Kaneohe. On December 10, 1962, Mrs Stephen F Bayne, Jr, wife of the Right Rev Stephen F Bayne, Jr, was entertained at a luncheon at The Willows by the women. She gave a very delightful talk on her travels and experiences as the wife of a "traveling Bishop."

A "highlight" of the Centennial year for the women was the presentation of the United Thank Offering at the Holy Communion Service preceding the 60th annual meeting of the Episcopal Churchwomen of Hawaii. The Golden Alms Basin was sent from the National Council to be used the Opening Service of the Convocation and the United Thank Offering Corporate Communion. The Right Reverend Arthur Lichtenberger, Presiding Bishop, received the offerings from the blue-coifed representatives from each parish and mission on the beautiful Golden Alms Basin. Approximately 765 women gratefully shared in the United Thank Offering in 1962 contributing $4393.00.

The women gave an alms basin to the Church as a loving expression of thanksgiving to God for his many blessings and as a memorial to the 100 years celebration of the Episcopal Church in Hawaii. It will be used to receive the United Thank Offering, "The expression in dollars and cents of a year's cycle of prayer and thanksgiving," at the Holy Communion Service preceding each annual meeting. It was designed by the Bishop.

The women have participated in community activities working together as missions and parishes or as individuals. They have faithfully served the various hospitals, State Institutions and Armed Services YMCA. $50.00 was contributed by the Episcopal Churchwomen of Hawaii as their share toward the purchasing of turkeys for the Thanksgiving dinner given at the Armed Services YMCA by the various churches in the community.

A total of $5425.97 was given by the various parishes, missions and individual women to the Bishop's Special for 1962 which included: The Bishop's Discretionary Fund $2799.45, Seminary Student Fund $1819.52, and Folding Chapel Chairs for Guam $807.00.

The women had a full and busy Centennial Year in 1962 participating in and planning hospitality for the many stimulating and important guests and accomplishing all the special events with their usual gracious and warm spirit.

The faithful participation of the members of the Board, the willingness of the women to share in the work of the church, the patience and cooperation of the members of the clergy and last but not least - the inspiration and guidance of our Bishop have made 1962 a busy but truly a good year for the women of the Church.

THE DIOCESAN DEPARTMENT OF CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

Diocesan-wide activities by the Department of Christian Education were limited to routine matters by the events of the Diocesan Centennial Celebration in 1962 which took precedence over other events and demanded the time and planning of the Department Chairman and several of its members.

The Department worked in the following usual areas:

1. Promoted Church School Missionary Offering materials and encouraged the offering during Lent;
2. Printed and distributed family prayer cards for use in Lent;
3. Cooperated with the Honolulu Council of Churches in the planning and presentation of a Vacation Bible School workshop for all denominations in May;
4. Prepared Christian Education materials for summer camp sessions at Mokuleia;
5. Prepared and distributed new Birthday Thank Offering cards and guides illustrating St John's School on Guam, recipient of the September 1962-August 1963 offering;
6. Assisted those parishes calling for help in teacher training and other special areas;

At the request of the Bishop, and the Honolulu Council of Churches, the Department Chairman met with a committee of representatives of the major Protestant denominations in Hawaii to begin plans for an Interdenominational Pastor's School to be held in the late summer of 1963.

As a member of the Centennial Committee the Chairman was in charge of the Spring Laymen's and Women's Conference, led by The Rev Dr Howard Harper, and Miss Frances Young, from New York. This involved one day sessions on all of the islands plus a week-end Conference at Mokuleia, at which the Chairman assisted the Conference leaders. A written report on the contents of the Conference was distributed to the Clergy in September.

The Chairman also had general charge of the Fall Lecture Series delivered by The Rev Dr Albert T Mollegan, and made general arrangements for the Full Clergy Conference in September with Dr Mollegan.

One of the major areas in which the Department hopes to make considerable progress in 1963 is Leadership Training, under the direction of The Rev Richard Kirchhoffer. With the major emphasis that is being placed upon the re-emerging position of the Laity throughout the Church, training for leadership will be imperative if the Laity is to fulfill its role.

Chairman

THE DEPARTMENT OF YOUTH
1962 REPORT

The Department of Youth during 1962 had as its members, The Rev Dr Paul Wheeler, Chairman; the Rev E Lani Hanchett, advisor to the Episcopal Young Churchmen (E Y C). The chairman handled the Junior Episcopal Churchmen of Hawaii himself. Mr Winston Ching served as assistant advisor to the E Y C.

The JECOH'S had a good summer camping program for two weeks last August at the Church Conference Center at Mokuleia. The Rev Joseph Pummill was in charge, and was assisted by David Kennedy. The JECOH'S were invited by the E Y C to attend the Youth Convocation Banquet when the Presiding Bishop, the Most Reverend Arthur Lichtenberger was the guest. They were well represented.

The summer camping program was run by David Kennedy, assisted by Guy Piltz, Victor Krulak, and under the direction of the Rev Edwin Bonsey. Two 2-week camps for children 8 - 12 were held during June and July at the Church Conference Center at Mokuleia. A well rounded program of Christian Education, Crafts, Recreation, and good food made the camp a very enjoyable experience for those who attended. Volunteer clergy and lay help provided adult supervision.

Summer camps were also held at Camp Pecusa, Maui under the direction of the Reverend Hollis Maxson; on Hawaii under the direction of the Venerable Gerald Loweth; and on Kauai under the direction of the Reverend Thomas Yoshida.

The E Y C has enjoyed a year of varied experiences. The Diocesan organization consists of a State Council and local island sub-councils. The officers for State Council are Marcia Chang, president; Rodney Go, vice-president; Lorraine Lent, secretary; and Barbara Rocha, treasurer. They have also served as the officers of the Oahu Council.

The E Y C Program for the year began with Youth Convocation Banquet in February with the Presiding Bishop as the guest of honor. More than 600 young people attended what was termed "the best banquet we've ever had."

On the fourth Sunday in Lent, about 150 young people from several of our churches met at St Andrew's Cathedral for a Lenten Youth Night. This consisted of a period of recreation, a picnic supper, and a worship service with the Very Reverend Paul Roberts preaching.

The Bishop's Ball in May turned out very well. It was held at the Elk's Club with about 300 teen-agers attending.

In mid-June, the annual Volley-ball tournament was held. Most of our Oahu churches entered teams. The competition lasted for four Sundays. The championship was won by St Andrew's Cathedral at a game held at the Summer Picnic at the Bishop's home. More than 300 of the Church's youth were present for this very happy afternoon.

The Summer Conference was held on Kauai in August. About a hundred young people from Oahu flew to the Garden Island to attend a very enjoyable 6 days of worship, study, recreation, and sight-seeing. The Kauai churches were in charge of arrangements and provided excellent hospitality and program. The study was led by the Reverend Claude Du Teil.

Our young people have entered well into the youth program of the Honolulu Council of Churches. We had good representation at a weekend Conference at Mokuleia in the early part of the year and at a Youth Rally during the summer.

It has been a busy year for our youth.

Respectfully submitted,

DEPARTMENT OF CHRISTIAN SOCIAL RELATIONS
REPORT FOR 1962

This report will be limited this year due to the fact that the Department head, The Reverend William Grosh, is on leave and I was asked near the end of the year to fill in for him until he returns. My responsibility since August has been that of Secretary for World Relief for our District.

During the past year, twenty-two refugees were brought to the Islands under the sponsorship of the following Parishes and Missions: Epiphany, St Mark's, St Barnabas, Calvary and Good Shepherd, and St Andrew's Priory. Of these refugees, one family of three did not find the situation suitable and returned to Miami.

The work of resettling Cuban Refugees continues to be urgent and the National Council at its December meeting, launched a concerted drive to aid these refugees in providing scholarships, job training, language lessons, resettlement, food, clothing and housing for many of the 180,000 who have fled communism. The Council hopes to raise $450,000 through the Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief.

In December an appeal was sent to all Missions and Parishes to sponsor Refugees from Hong Kong. As of the end of the year we report no results on that appeal.

THE REV JOSEPH H PUMMILL
Secretary for World Relief
Acting Chairman, Department of Christian Social Relations

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLICITY AND PROMOTION

The local press, radio and television stations have been most cooperative during the past year and we appreciate all the publicity they have given us. We are also grateful to the Church Press for their interest and for the many articles they have published.

The Department of Publicity and Promotion was responsible for all publicity in conjunction with our Centennial Year. This was a year-long job, but through the cooperation of the news media the community was kept informed of the events and visitors. Special thanks should go to Mrs Samuel King, Promotion Chairman of the Episcopal Churchwomen of Hawaii for her cheerful and willing help.

The Hawaiian Church Chronicle is the official publication of the Diocese and should be in the hands of every Church family each month. It is strongly urged that every parish and mission make this a budget item, not only for Church families but for young people away at school and in the Armed Forces.

Weekly paid notices have been published in the two chief Honolulu daily newspapers with information about every church on Oahu. Each church pays for this, the Department merely coordinates the material. We have had almost 100% cooperation from our Churches.

The Department will be glad to assist any churches or organizations in publicity or promotional problems.

Respectfully submitted,

(THE REV) ROBERT SHEERAN
Chairman

ACCOUNTANT'S REPORT

The Board of Directors
The Protestant Episcopal Church
in the Hawaiian Islands

We have examined the balance sheet of The Protestant Episcopal Church in the Hawaiian Islands as of December 31, 1962. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

The accounts and records of the church do not reflect the financial position and results of operations of parishes, missions or institutions which conduct the activities of The Protestant Episcopal Church throughout the State of Hawaii. However, certain trusts of these departments are held by the church, and accordingly have been taken into account in the accompanying financial statements.

Inasmuch as title to all real property, except the real property of Iolani School, Hawaiian Episcopal Academy and St. Clement's Church, is vested in The Protestant Episcopal Church in the Hawaiian Islands, this property is accounted for in the records of the church. However, the carrying value of the real property is not infrequently an estimated amount, not readily subject to accurate determination, intended to represent expenditures made not only by the church but also by missions, parishes and other persons, or, more recently, an amount which represents only those expenditures made from the proceeds of loans from church funds or lending institutions which do not include certain other expenditures made through the treasurer's office or directly by churches and parishes.

In our opinion, the accompanying balance sheet and supporting schedules (Schedules I through III) have been prepared in accordance with established accounting practices of The Protestant Episcopal Church in the Hawaiian Islands on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.
